

JWU Readmission

Applicants applying for admission to any bachelor's degree programs who have attended Johnson & Wales University as an undergraduate student in the past, regardless of whether a degree was earned, must complete a readmission application and submit it with transcripts from any institutions attended since leaving JWU. For details regarding the university's readmittance policy, see the Student Handbook.