Integrative Learning (ILS) Courses

ILS2150 Introduction to American Studies
This course introduces students to the major themes in American culture, both past and emerging. Students are given a sense of the tensions running through the identity and image of Americans here and around the world. As an integrative learning seminar, this course also serves as an introduction to the idea and practice of interdisciplinary scholarship. This course gives students a wide range of tools to make sense of what America is, has been and can be. Topics include traditional disciplines that help illuminate American culture. Focus is on art, music, literature, history and anthropology. Prerequisite(s): ENG1020 or ENG1024 or English placement, sophomore status. Offered at Charlotte, Denver, Denver CE, North Miami, Providence, Providence CE 3 Semester Credits

ILS2325 Economics of Sin
This course integrates economic, sociological and psychological principles to examine price gouging, cheating, illegal drugs, sex and gambling. Emphasis is on examining these "sinful" behaviors in the context of moral development and theories of motivation. Students also examine how government seeks to change and penalize such behavior and the consequences of these interventions. Prerequisite(s): ENG1020 or ENG1024 or English placement, sophomore status. (OL) Offered at Charlotte, Denver, Denver CE, North Miami, Online, Providence, Providence CE 3 Semester Credits
