

ESL Students

Students who are studying in the English as a Second Language (ESL) program will be charged $5,250 tuition per semester. International students in this program will also be charged an annual International Student Services Fee of $1,386 if attending the Providence Campus. This program charge will be applied for each semester the student remains in the ESL program. ESL students are not eligible for Johnson & Wales University scholarships or grants.