Student Engagement

Student Engagement strives to cultivate meaningful experiences to inspire personal and professional growth. Students are encouraged to be active participants in an array of social, cultural, spiritual, educational and recreational programs offered by the Student Engagement office. Please consult the JWU Directory for Student Engagement's hours, location and contact information.

Some of the programs and services provided include:

- Wildcat Welcome programming and events
- Student Organizations
- Fraternity & Sorority Life
- Leadership Development Programs
- Student Government
- Campus activities and programs, such as comedy shows, bands, movie nights and bingo
- Homecoming
- Family Weekend

Please refer to the Student Organizations webpage to learn about connecting to the Involvement Network. There you will find a full listing of student organizations. Check out the events calendar on jwuLink to stay updated on events.

When a student becomes a member (associate, new or full member) of a student organization or team, that student represents not only themselves, but also the university and the organization or team. Groups may be held responsible as a whole for the misconduct of their individual members, including, but not limited to, any violation of the Student Code of Conduct, any other university rule or policy, or any local, state or federal law. Please refer to the Student Code of Conduct for more information regarding group responsibility.
