

Study Abroad

Study Abroad works with academic colleges to offer Study Abroad programs during the fall and spring semesters, spring break, and summer. Students are encouraged to visit the Study Abroad website for program information, online applications and to set up an appointment for Study Abroad advising. Students must meet all eligibility requirements to participate in Study Abroad (varies by program), including good conduct standing. JWU financial aid and scholarships can be applied for many programs.