

Combined Degrees: Hospitality Management B.S./Public Health MPH

Curriculum

The College of Hospitality Management offers students an opportunity to take five graduate courses their senior (fourth) year at JWU through its Combined Degrees: Hospitality Management B.S./Public Health M.P.H. program. This program enables qualified students to earn, in a continuous plan of study, both a B.S. degree in Hospitality Management and an Master of Public Health degree in as little as five years.

Qualified students are able to complete five core Master of Public Health degree courses that will count toward their undergraduate Hospitality Management degree. Visit the Hospitality Management B.S. degree and Master of Public Health degree program pages for program descriptions and outcomes.

Requirements

Eligible undergraduate students who would like to pursue the Combined Degrees: Hospitality Management B.S./Public Health M.P.H. program should apply directly for the program by the end of their second year to take maximum advantage of this accelerated option. Qualified students who elect the Combined Degrees: Hospitality Management B.S./Public Health M.P.H. program as an undergraduate student must fulfill all admissions requirements for entrance into the intended graduate program and complete a graduate program application.

Admissions Requirements

Johnson & Wales University holistically reviews all elements of a student's application to identify those students most likely to succeed at the university.

For first-year applicants, a completed application and high school transcript(s) are required. For transfer applicants, a completed application and high school and/or college transcript(s) are required. Completion of optional materials is encouraged.

Successful candidates for first year admission have taken a high school, college preparatory academic program including English, mathematics, science, social science and foreign language. Admissions decisions may also consider individual experiences and particular circumstances unique to each student. Other considerations are made based upon recommendations, writing ability and extracurricular activities.

Visiting campus, both in-person or virtually, is a valuable way of assuring that JWU is the right university for you.
