

Uniforms

Students in the College of Food Innovation & Technology (including Dietetics and Applied Nutrition students) and College of Hospitality Management have uniform and grooming requirements that are specific to their program of study. This section outlines those requirements. Please read carefully the section that pertains to your program.